Perdue's Grill

The Columbia Opera House or Columbia Building stands at the corner of Sampson and Walnut streets. This two-story red brick structure was built in 1898 - 1899 by local contractor Fred Trout. A Gala grand opening was held on October 27, 1899. It was reported by the Peoria Star that "A large number of Pekinites have made arrangements to go to Tremont to attend the opening of the Opera House there and the grand ball." Many travelers and locals performed in the theater, on the second floor. Numerous events took place in the Opera House, although no one ever recalls a opera being performed. Events included prize fights, wrestling matches, basketball, high school graduations and various contests. Signatures of artists and athletes can still be found on the back walls of the stage. To this day, it remains a mystery where the large, beautiful crystal chandelier, which hung in the middle of the theater, and a few ornamental pieces from the roof, disappeared to.

Over the years the Opera House has had many tenants throughout its two floors and basement including a bank, post office, bakery, meat market, laundromat, farm supply store, pool hall, barber shop, creamery, telephone office, jewelry store, dentist office, tavern, silent movie theater, apartments, office space, flower shop and various restaurants and bars. Since 2010 the main floor has been occupied by Perdue's Grill. Tim & Tracy Perdue, and their daughters, are proud to have built a family business in such a historical landmark.
