“Farmers are the Seeds of Society”

We will be planting these vegetables this season: Broccoli, Cabbage, Cantaloupe, Cucumbers, Egg Plant, Greens, Green Beans, Green Onions, Hot Peppers, Kale, Lettuce, Micro Greens, Onions, Picklers, Potatoes, Shell Peas, Sugar Peas, Spinach, Sweet Peppers, Sweet Potatoes, Summer Squash, Potatoes, Pumpkins, Tomatoes, Watermelons, Winter Squash and a few other veggies, and our famous Sweet Corn!!

Look over the offerings. If there are some things you would not like to eat or try let us know and we will substitute additional amounts of other things. By joining our Farm Share, you are sharing the risk. If for some reason a crop does not produce this season, we will not be held responsible. By signing this agreement, it is understood there are no guarantees what crops you may receive. We are good Growers but in event of a crop failure or reduced yields you agree to share the risks with us. No refunds will be issued. Although we do not grow organic, we follow the practices and keep chemicals to a minimum in order to produce you the best quality Vegetables.

The weekly Share will be prepared and ready to be picked up at our Farm on Wednesdays 2 pm to 6 pm. This year we will be using wood crates for the Shares. There will be two per customer to be traded each week. Please return or there will be a $10 charge. For any Share not picked up we will utilize at our discretion. If you notify us your Share will be filled the following day. Drive up service ensures everyone stays safe. No one needs to leave their car. We hope that COVID-19 is not as prevalent in 2021 as 2020 but we will be prepared. As we proceed thru the Growing Season, we will keep Everyone safe at our Farm.

This year we are offering delivery to your house for an additional charge of $5 per week. For deliveries we recommend having a cooler set by your door if you will not be home. We will deliver to Ankeny and Des Moines on Tuesdays and have a drop off at Polk City on Thursdays. Ames delivery will be on Thursdays. No additional charge if picked up at the drop site.

We will issue weekly updates by email keeping everyone in the loop. Follow us on Face Book and check our website blacksheritagefarm.com. Our website will offer buying online of all the products we produce. Keep in mind that the Farm Shares will be filled first before selling to others. We are working on our online store and will have it working soon.

If you would like to communicate with us, you may call Norine at 515-203-0378 or email blacksheritagefarms@hotmail.com

We look forward to Growing for you.
